

INSTRUCTIONS: HOW TO FILL OUT YOUR DECREE OF DISSOLUTION OF A NON-COVENANT MARRIAGE (DIVORCE) WITH CHILDREN

Use these instructions only with the “Decree of Dissolution of a Non-Covenant Marriage (Divorce) With Children.” (If there are no minor children, by birth or adoption, common to you and your spouse, use the form for a “Decree of Dissolution of a Non-Covenant Marriage without Children.”)

What the Decree Means to You. The Decree is the Court Order that legally ends your marriage. The Decree, once the judge or commissioner has signed it, is important because it determines the rights and responsibilities of both you and your ex-spouse. It tells the parties what they can and cannot do. If either party does not do what the Decree tells him/her to do, then the other party may ask the court for help. This is a very important document. Once it has been signed by the judge, your rights and responsibilities are affected forever.

Failure to do what the Decree tells you to do could get you into trouble with the court. This does not mean that the court will police whether you are following the Decree. It does mean you or your ex-spouse can request a “Contempt Order” or an “Order to Enforce” parts of the Decree if you or your ex-spouse fail to do what the Decree tells you to do.

Getting Your Divorce Finalized. Before your divorce can become final, a judicial officer must sign what we call a “Decree of Dissolution of Marriage.” The Decree states how the property (if any) is divided, how the debts and assets (if any) are divided, the amount of spousal maintenance/support (alimony) (if any), and in cases involving children, legal decision making (custody), visitation and the amount of child support, etc.

Divorce by Default. If you have a Default Hearing, you must repeat as closely as possible what you requested in your Petition. You cannot request something different in the Decree from what you requested in the Petition, unless your spouse has provided written consent. If you try to do this, the judicial officer will not sign the Decree. If you want to change your requests to the court, you must file an “Amended Petition.” It is a good idea to have your Petition handy when you follow the instructions to fill out your Decree.

The Decree. Fill out the Decree before you go to your hearing or before you give it to the judge to sign. Do not fill in the judge’s signature and date. If the judge disagrees with anything you have written he or she will change it before signing the Decree.

Instructions for Filling out the Decree

This section tells you that before the judicial officer signs the Decree, the Judicial Officer will have determined that the court has the legal power to make the orders in your case. It also confirms that at least one of the parties lived in Arizona for at least 90 days before the Petition for Divorce was filed, and that the parties are unable to get back together and save their marriage. (If you have a trial, you must bring a copy of your marriage license to the trial to show the judge what type of marriage you have.

Also, if you served the other party by publication, the court cannot sign a Decree that divides community property and/or debt, or order the other party to pay spousal maintenance/support (alimony).

- b. LEGAL DECISION MAKING (CUSTODY): The legal decision making (custody) box you mark should be the same as what you asked for in your Petition for Dissolution, unless you and the other party have signed a Joint Legal Decision Making (Custody) Agreement and you are attaching it to the Decree OR you have had a trial and the judge has ordered something different than what is in your Petition.
 - 1. For sole legal decision making (custody) of the minor child(ren), mark who is to have sole legal decision making (custody), Petitioner or Respondent. Then mark only one of the three types of parenting time:
 - 1) parenting time to the parent not having legal decision making (custody); or

- 2) supervised; or
- 3) no parenting time.

If both spouses agree to a Parenting Plan, both must complete the Plan and sign it. If only one spouse agrees to the Parenting Plan and you have a default divorce hearing, you still must complete the Parenting Plan and tell the Court what you think should be the parenting time arrangement. If parenting time is supervised and you have a default hearing or you agree, write in the name of person who will supervise the parenting time and any restrictions. Mark who will be paying for the cost of supervision. If no parenting time is to be given to the Petitioner or the Respondent, check this box.

- 2. For joint legal decision making (custody) you should not have marked box 1 above. Remember, you must attach a copy of the Joint Legal Decision Making (Custody) Agreement and Parenting Plan as Exhibit B signed by both parents, which the judicial officer must approve if you want Joint Legal Decision Making (Custody). The Agreement will be included as part of the Court Order ending your marriage.

Page 6 of the "Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Divorce) With Children"

- d. MEDICAL, DENTAL, VISION CARE INSURANCE, PAYMENTS, AND EXPENSES: Mark who will be responsible for medical, dental and vision care insurance. Mark what percent each party will pay for uninsured expenses.

5. SPOUSAL MAINTENANCE/SUPPORT (ALIMONY)

- a. Mark this box if neither party is requesting spousal maintenance.
- b. Mark this box if you requested spousal maintenance (alimony) in the Petition and you have a Default Hearing. (You cannot get spousal maintenance if the other party was served by publication.) OR, Mark this box if the parties agreed that one party would pay the other party spousal maintenance.

Then mark who is to pay the spousal maintenance and who will receive the spousal maintenance. If the parties agree, put in the amount and the date the spousal maintenance will end. Otherwise, you should leave the amount and number of months of spousal maintenance blank until the judge approves the request. Be prepared to tell the judge what amount you are asking for, for what period, and why.

6. PROPERTY, DEBTS and TAX RETURNS.

- a. Mark the first two boxes, if each party will pay the debts that are unknown to the other party. By marking the third box under 6.a., you are telling the court you do not want to pay for bills your spouse got after you separated. Write the approximate date you separated on the line provided.
- b. Mark this box if there is property and debts to be divided, even if you have already divided the property. You can give the court this information on "EXHIBIT A: COMMUNITY PROPERTY AND DEBTS" that you must attach to the Decree if you mark this box. Instructions for Exhibit A are included at the end of this instruction.

- c. This states that you and your spouse get to keep property that you owned from the marriage or that was a gift to you during the marriage. You also can keep any personal items, clothing, and any other property you own that is not considered community property.
- d. This means either spouse can record the Decree if there is a transfer of title to certain property, like a house. This section also requires each spouse to sign documents to transfer other property, like titles to cars, and so forth. If you have a quit claim deed that transfers property from one spouse to the other spouse, attach a copy of the deed to the Decree, and check this box. Write in the date that both parties shall transfer all real and personal property.
- e. Mark this box and tell the court whether the parties will file joint or separate tax returns for previous years if taxes have not been paid. For this calendar year, and future calendar years neither you nor your spouse can file joint tax returns. According to the IRS, State law governs whether you are married, divorced, or legally separated. If you are divorced under a final decree by the last day of the year, you are considered unmarried for the whole year.

See a lawyer or accountant for advice if you are not sure which box to check. You may also call the IRS at 1-800-829-4477 or visit their INTERNET site at <http://www.irs.ustreas.gov> for help.

- 7. FINANCIAL INFORMATION EXCHANGES: This shows that the parties must share/exchange financial information every 24 months. This information is important in determining amounts of child support or other related issues.
- 8. TAX EXEMPTIONS: Decide which parent will claim the children on income tax forms, for which year. Federal and state laws apply here. If you are not sure what to do, ask a lawyer or an accountant for help.
- 9. MINOR CHILD(REN) TO WHOM THE DECREE DOES NOT APPLY: Mark this box only if a child(ren) was born during the marriage, but is not common to the marriage. Mark which party should have no legal rights to the child(ren). If you mark this box, list the name of any such child(ren) with the date(s) of his/her birth(s) in the space provided. Page 9 of the “Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Divorce) With Children”

“EXHIBIT A: COMMUNITY PROPERTY AND DEBT”

- IF YOU MARKED the first box of 3 e. ON YOUR DECREE AND HAVE NO COMMUNITY PROPERTY OR DEBTS, STOP HERE. You have completed your Decree. If you have community property or community debt listed in your Petition, you should copy the information from that part of your Petition to Exhibit A. REMEMBER: if you are going by default, the division of property must be identical to the list in your petition. You cannot add new community property to the list, although you can give your spouse more property than that listed on your petition. You should also make sure it is very clear who gets what property. That means you should describe the property in detail and then designate whether Petitioner gets it or Respondent gets it.
- 1. Division of Community Property. Mark the first box about community property, if you have community property. Mark the box next to each type of community property you own, and describe the property. Then mark the box showing which party the property is being given to.
- 2. Mark the box “award each party the personal property in his or her possession,” if you want the court to order this. Mark the box “continued on reverse side or see attached list” if this is true.
- 3. Division of Retirement, Pension, Deferred Compensation. Decide what you want to do about these assets. Generally, each spouse is entitled up to a half interest in the pension or retirement or deferred compensation benefits of the other spouse based upon the length of time the parties were married. This is very complicated, and very important to both spouses. If you are entitled to any interest in your spouse’s retirement assets, you may be required to file a Qualified Domestic Relations Order.

This is a very important document. The Court does not have this document. See a lawyer for help. Check the box that describes what you asked for in the Petition or what the parties have agreed to.

Page 10 of the “Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Divorce) With Children”

4. Division of Real Property: Use this section if you own a home or real estate together. IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT YOU WRITE IN THE CORRECT ADDRESS AND THE LEGAL DESCRIPTION OF EACH PIECE OF PROPERTY. This information, including the address and legal description should also be the same as what you provided in the Petition. Decide which spouse gets the property, OR whether it should be sold and any proceeds divided.

5. Division of Community Debts: List all debts you listed on your Petition for Dissolution. You can update the amounts owed, only if the amounts are less than those amounts in the Petition or the parties agree to update the amounts. Then put which debts are to be the responsibilities of which party.

Also, decide if you want the order to divide debts incurred by a spouse that are not listed to be paid by the spouse who incurred the debt. Remember, just because the Decree orders either spouse to pay debts does not mean that the creditor cannot pursue collection from the other spouse, even after the divorce decree.

6. Separate Property. List your separate property and the other party's separate property. Then check the box to say who gets the property.
7. Separate Debt. List your separate debt and the other party's separate debt. Then check the box to say who pays the debt.

PARENTING PLAN AND JOINT LEGAL DECISION MAKING (CUSTODY) AGREEMENT

Now you must complete the Parenting Plan to decide how legal decision making (custody), parenting time, and all the details will work after the divorce. The best thing to do is for both parents to complete this plan together. Read the Mohave County Legal Decision Making (Custody) and Visitation Guidelines to help you. If you want Joint Legal Decision Making (Custody), both parents must complete and sign the Parenting Plan AND the Joint Legal Decision Making (Custody) Agreement.

REMINDER:

1. Be sure to attach "EXHIBIT A" about property and debts to your decree.
2. Be sure to attach the Child Support Worksheet, the Order of Assignment, and the Parenting Plan, if you have marked joint legal decision making (custody) or if the parties have signed a Parenting Plan.
3. Be sure to include a quit claim deed, if a quit claim deed has been signed.
