

Mohave County is seeking applicants for the position of Justice of the Peace for the Bullhead City precinct, Mohave County Arizona. The Bullhead City precinct includes what is commonly known as the Colorado River Valley and includes the city of Bullhead City and the unincorporated areas of Mohave Valley, Topock, Fort Mohave, and Golden Shores. The area is essentially made up of that portion of Mohave County which lies south of Davis Dam, North of Interstate 40 and west of the Black Mountains.

To serve as Justice of the Peace you must be over the age of 18, be a resident and registered voter in the Bullhead City precinct at the time of appointment; and read and write the English language. The individual, will serve until a successor is elected during the general election in 2014.

Applicants will be screened by a panel that will make recommendations to the Mohave County Board of Supervisors. The Board of Supervisors will have an opportunity to review all applicant material in addition to the recommendations of the screening panel. It is the intent of Mohave County to select the best qualified individual for the position as soon as possible. Applicants who do not currently live within the precinct must demonstrate an ability to relocate and establish permanent residency within the precinct in less than two weeks time period.

The pay for the position is $101,500 per year. The position supervises a staff of 10 employees. Individuals interested in applying should submit an application, a resume and cover letter along with 5 professional references to:

Postal Service or Courier

Mohave County Human Resources

700 W. Beale St.

PO Box 7000

Kingman, AZ 86402-7000

Only application material received by COB September 21, 2012 will be considered.

Download Application