MOTION FOR CORRECTIONS
FOR COURT
ORDER/NOTICE/RULING
DATED OCTOBER 30, 2019

Honorable Judge Jantzen

21 In accordance with instructions from Danielle Leshner, Assistant to the Hon. Judge
22 Jantzen, Corrections for errors in Court correspondence such as minute entries for Status
23 Conference discussions or for Corrections to JudgmentS/Orders/Rulings need to be 24 submitted as pleadings and to send copies to anyone involved in the case. Ms. Hipes,
25 clerk of the court, said the Corrections needed to be filed by Motion to the Court.

26 Plaintiff has found no Rules of civil procedure to cite for this pleading or Motion.

27 Consider this document as a pleading for Corrections by Motion for the body of 28

B8015CV201804003

1 document with a Hearing Date of 10/16/2019. Bear in mind that Plaintiff does not have
2 the digital recording to confirm discussion. She is only able to cite the corrected dates of 3 her filings. She has no recollection of the date the Court claimed he was going to have a
4 judgment made on the Motion for Leave to Amend Complaint filed on June 19, 2019.

6 Plaintiff is fully aware of the conversation regarding her Motion for 7 Reconsideration of Dismissal of Count One as this was a critical time frame for the 8 Plaintiff to accomplish the task.

10 Prior Corrections in Bold were conducted on Request by email for the Corrected
11 name of the Judge, corrected Div., and corrected Courtroom.

13 The Corrections in Bold within the body of the document begins on on line 7 from 14 the top as follows:
15

16 Discussion ensues regarding the pending Motion for Leave to Amend Complaint filed on June 19, 2019. Court advises Ms. Knight ...

18 Discussion ensues regarding supplemental evidence for Plaintiff's Reconsideration of Dismissal of Count One filed on August 27, 2019. The Court advises Ms. Knight that a judgment will made by October 22 and if she had additional exhibits she should try to get them filed by Friday.
