DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Domestic violence can be part of any relationship. Domestic violence includes physical violence, such as hitting, slapping, pushing or kicking, directed against you and/or your children. It also includes threats of physical violence against you and/or your children, and/or verbal abuse against you and/or your children, used to control you.

Court documents request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, or you do not want your address known to protect yourself or your children from further violence, you must file a "Petition for an Order of Protection" and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. With that order, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your court papers. If possible, get a P.O. box or provide another address where you can be contacted with these papers. If you do not have another address or phone where you can be reached when you file your court papers, write "protected" in the space where you are asked for this information. As soon as possible, give the Clerk of the Court an address and phone number where you can be reached.

CASE NUMBER

Use the Case number on all your court papers. This is the number you were assigned in the paternity or child support case you had in Mohave County.

Or, if your paternity or child support case was from another county or another state, use the number the Clerk of the Court assigned you when you filed the certified copy of your other court case in Mohave County.

E. Statements about paternity AND legal decision making AND child support: Tell the court what the current situation is.

5. What is the status of paternity in this case? (Check one box)

While you may not remember exact dates and addresses, please fill it out as completely as possible.
9. You must tell the court if you participated as a party or witness in any court case involving issues OTHER THAN legal decision making or parenting time of the minor child(ren). This information could affect you and/or your minor child(ren's) rights in this case.

10. The court MUST know if there have been other cases involving legal decision making, parenting time or child support of the children of this case, even if you were not a party. 2. Supervised parenting time to the non-custodial parent. You may request supervised parenting time if the non-custodial parent cannot adequately care for the minor child(ren) or cannot do so without another person present. You may request this if the person not having legal decision making abuses drugs or alcohol; is violent or abusive; or, does not have the parenting skills to care for a minor child without another adult present. Remember, supervised parenting time is not intended to punish the parent, but to protect the child(ren). You must write in why you say the parenting time should be supervised parenting time.
3. Other orders. Write in the additional orders you are requesting the court to make that were not covered in your Petition.

I. Oath and verification of party filing this petition: Sign this form in front of a Clerk of the court or a Notary Public. By doing so you are telling the court that everything contained in the Petition is true.

NOTICE REGARDING THE PARENT INFORMATION PROGRAM

This is an important document. You and the other parent must attend and complete a class in the Parent Information Program. This is a very exciting and wonderful class. It was designed to help you. This Notice applies to all parents who file an action for dissolution of marriage or legal separation, or any paternity proceeding, in which a party has requested that the court determine legal decision making or parenting time on or after January 1, 1997, and to all other family court cases if ordered by the court.

MAKE SURE YOU READ THIS NOTICE, DO WHAT IT SAYS, AND SERVE THIS NOTICE ON THE OTHER PARTY.
