

CIVIL TRAFFIC HEARING REQUEST

Please select appropriate court on the court drop down menu above. The court name is listed on your citation.

If you are requesting a Civil Traffic Hearing, it means you wish to contest the violation(s) alleged on the ticket/complaint before a Judge.

By requesting a hearing, you are giving up the option to attend defensive driving school.

You can only request this hearing prior to the date of initial appearance on the ticket.

How to submit your request:

- In person at the courthouse.
- Mail or email the form to the court listed on your citation. The court email address and mailing address are in the court drop down menu at the top of the page. You may email this form by clicking the Submit button on the top right of the page.
